CHESAPEAKE INFORMATION AND RESEARCH LIBRARY
ALLIANCE PLACES NINE FELLOWS IN POST-MLS POSITIONS
Library of Congress Employs Recent Graduates

The Chesapeake Information and Research Library Alliance (CIRLA) is pleased to announce the appointment of nine Fellows to full-time, professional post-Master of Library Science/Master of Information Management positions with the Library of Congress.

The Fellows are:

Jade Albuero of Washington, DC
Reference and Collection Processing Librarian

Netta Cox of Woodbridge, VA
Librarian (Acquisitions Specialist), Acquisitions & Bibliographic Access
Anglo-American Acquisitions Division

Jovanna Frazier, Arlington, VA
Network System Research Assistant Librarian

Alliah Humber of Washington, DC
Reference Librarian, Serial and Government Publications Division

Julius Jefferson, Jr. of Washington, DC
Reference Librarian, Humanities and Social Sciences Division

Hector Morey of Washington, DC
Librarian (Acquisitions Specialist), Acquisitions & Bibliographic Access
European and Latin American Acquisitions Division

Zhongie Sun of Arlington, VA
Librarian (Chinese), Asian Division

Amber Thiele of Adelphi, MD
Music Specialist

Matthew Treskon of Baltimore, MD
Cataloger (Pictorial Collections), Prints and Photographs Division

The placements represent the final stage of the CIRLA Fellows Program, a mentoring, education and experiential program for library school students from traditionally underserved ethnic or racial groups who have demonstrated interest in research or academic library careers. The program is sponsored through a Librarians for the 21st Century grant, awarded by the Institute for Museum and Library Services written and administered by Georgetown University's Lauinger Library. It is designed to ready the next generation of librarians to fill functional specialties in academic-research libraries.

CIRLA is a not-for-profit organization of educational and research institutions in Delaware, the District of Columbia, and Maryland, committed to enhancing education and research at member institutions through collaborative development of library collections and service programs and the expanding use of information technology. For more information on CIRLA, please call Jessica Billian at 202-687-6851, or log on to www.cirla.org.
